Northern Exposure

Next to the city but unashamedly a sleepy suburb, rich in built heritage and home to over 64 hectares of parkland as well as the mighty MCG, East Melbourne is always high on the shopping list of the discerning buyer.

Perched on the 9th floor of 166 Wellington parade, with irreplaceable northern views from the living and master bedroom this generous two bedroom apartment is the perfect home away from home.

Air-conditioned for your comfort, the living room is light and breezy capturing the northern sun through the cafe style fold back windows which provide uninterrupted views across the stunning heritage homes of East Melbourne.

The modern kitchen is finished in stone and tile with Gas cooking, electric oven, dishwasher and copious storage.

The bathroom is stylishly appointed with a shower over bath, sink, WC and laundry facilities.

Pricing and storage cage on title, building facilities include security entrance and elevators, Pool and secure underground parking.
